Patricia Ann Irish

Miss Patricia Ann Irish, 26, daughter of Ralph Irish of Aberdeen, and sister of Mrs. Robert Van De Brake of this city, passed away at 1:00 p. m., Sunday, in the Swedish Hospital of Minneapolis. She had been ill for several months and was in Minneapolis for brain surgery. Sympathy is extended to the family in their loss.

Services are being held at 2:00 p. m., Thursday, in the Huebl Chapel in Aberdeen. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Miss Irish was born Jan. 21, 1930 at Webster. Her family moved to Doland before she was a year old and she lived there until 1940 when the family moved to Aberdeen. She completed grade school there and graduated from Central high school in 1948.

She entered nurse's training at St. Barnabas Hospital in Minneapolis that year and graduated as a registered nurse in 1951. She worked in hospitals in Aberdeen and Long Beach, Calif., returning to the Hub City about a year ago. She has been employed as special nurse at St. Luke's Hospital since that time.

Miss Irish was a member of the First Methodist church of Aberdeen.

Survivors include her father and five sisters, Mrs. Shirley Sigler, Aberdeen; Mrs. Helen Van De Brake, of Groton; Mrs. Mary Lou Lower, of Pierre; Miss Joan Irish of Hollywood, Calif., and Miss Sharon Ruth Irish, at home. Her mother preceded her in death in 1952.
